

2/67 Maroondah Highway, Healesville, Vic 3777

Sold House

Monday, 4 September 2023

2/67 Maroondah Highway, Healesville, Vic 3777

Bedrooms: 3

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 2

Area: 513 m2

Type: House

Brittany Brown

0413804641

Contact agent

This lovely three bedroom home offers open plan living with a tranquil feel yet so close to the hustle and bustle of Healesville. Entertain your guests while preparing meals in the modern open style kitchen area with an island bench, stainless steel appliances such as dishwasher, gas cooktop and wall oven surrounded by the separate lounge and meals zone is well proportioned and generous in size, holding beautiful natural light. The three generous bedrooms are well great in size equipped with built in robes and ceiling fans. The master positioned at the rear of the home with an open ensuite with shower, great size vanity with storage and a separate toilet. Whilst the further two bedrooms are serviced by a main central bathroom with shower, deep soaking bath, vanity with storage and a separate toilet. A unique aspect to this property is the double sliding door opens to the outside covered decking area, being well connected to the kitchen this is a great spot for entertaining for all seasons. The backyard is a great size too being well connected from the house perfect for the pets or kids to play. Accommodating for all seasons, the home is equipped with ducted heating and split system heating and cooling. Further additions list as; laundry with generous storage, oversize double carport, generous block, blinds/curtains throughout, generous proportions with spacious yet low maintenance block. Currently leased to a fabulous renter until 1 December 2023, would like the opportunity to stay on if the option was presented. This home is located within a short drive or walk to Healesville town centre for all amenities such as shops, cafes, restaurants, public transport, parks, schools and the Yarra Valley's beautiful vineyards.