Tucked away on a quiet cul-de-sac, around the corner from local schools, and moments from Dandenong central, this home contributes generous space and a contemporary design for a fabulous family future. Well-considered features include North-facing living zones that move seamlessly between a quiet alfresco courtyard and formal living and dining rooms. In the heart of the home is a well-appointed kitchen complete with stone bench tops, stainless-steel appliances, ample cabinet space, and a stunning mirrored splash back. A master bedroom with walk in robe and ensuite sits at the entry, zoned separately from the other 2 bedrooms, both with built in robes and main bathroom access. Further features include living room split system, ducted heating, downlights, blinds, carpeted bedrooms, low maintenance gardens and secure parking. Nestled in an astounding position with all amenities close by including Lyndale Greens Primary School, Lyndale Secondary, Brady Road shops, a myriad of eateries, parks, playgrounds, public transport and major arterials such as Eastlink, Monash Freeway and Princes Highway. Waverley Gardens Shopping Centre and Dandenong Plaza are also a short drive away. At a glance, - North-facing living zones - Formal living and dining domains - Fuss-free family living - House-like proportions - Quiet, family-friendly neighbourhood
