Whether you're looking to get a foot on the property ladder or an astute investment, this Palmyra unit puts you in pole position when it comes to walkability and convenience. The three-bedroom property is steps from Redding Reserve, minutes from childcare and Palmyra primary school and walking distance from supermarkets, public transport and good coffee. 3 bedrooms 1 bathroom Brick and tile strata unit Open-plan kitchen meals Light-filled lounge room AC & slow combustion fire Main bed w semi-ensuite Paved outdoor living area Brick garage & workshop Small complex of three Walk shops parks school The front door opens to a light-filled lounge with a large, east-facing window. This welcoming space leads into the open-plan kitchen and meals area, where a slow-combustion fireplace and bright, functional kitchen create a natural hub. The kitchen features an electric wall oven and an electric cooktop, overhead and under bench storage, a built-in pantry and an integrated breakfast bar. Sliding doors expand the living and entertaining space to a sheltered, brick-paved courtyard, an ideal setting for alfresco dining. Two bedrooms boast built-in robes, and the main bedroom has semi-ensuite access to the family bathroom. A walk-through laundry leads out to the garage area and a brick workshop/storeroom. The fully fenced backyard should inspire those with a green thumb to create a lush garden oasis. With a wealth of services and amenities within walking distance, a choice of green spaces to enjoy and Murdoch University around a 10-minute drive away, this bright three-bedroom unit is a polished and perfectly positioned gem.
