Be Quick this will sell FAST ..... Call John Caputo now to Book your LOOK! Finding a property in a premium location on a beer budget is virtually impossible in Perth's hot market. But every now and then, one comes along that needs to be snapped up immediately, like this one-bedroom, one-bathroom ground-floor apartment. This move-in ready apartment is perfect for out-of-towners seeking lock & leave property in a central location. Alternatively, it's also an excellent option for FIFO workers, given the proximity to the airport or for uni students studying at the nearby Edith Cowan University. Professionals will appreciate the short commute to the city, and investors will reap the rewards in Maylands' ready-made rental market. Featuring open-plan living and dining flowing out to a fully enclosed courtyard, this ground-floor apartment is ideal for entertaining and relaxing when you're not out dining and shopping along 8th Avenue and Whatley Crescent, where you have a range of cafes, bars, specialty stores and boutiques. Coles, IGA, the Rise recreation centre, Maylands Train Station and bus routes are only a stroll away. As you're located on a peninsula, you have the Swan River only a short walk away in either direction. Affordable properties in such a central location are rare, so you must move fast to secure this one. Please don't hesitate to contact John Caputo on 0433 158 384 to arrange a viewing today.
