Metro Property Management offers you this immaculate and light filled two bedroom townhouse built to impress. This beautifully designed home offers two bedrooms, both with mirrored built in robes and wall panel heaters, which are serviced by the contemporary main bathroom and separate laundry. As you make your way up the stunning timber staircase, you are greeted by the spacious open plan layout featuring modern kitchen with stone benchtops, electric oven and gas hot plates, flowing on to the large living/meals area and out to your own private balcony. Completing this wonderful package is a split system air conditioner to the living area, intercom, single carport and a perfect location, close to public transport, La Trobe University and local schools and shops. Contact us today! Please ensure you include full information of all Pets in your application. At Metro - we are property management. Is this property not quite what you were looking for?
