A premium addition to a growing investment portfolio or an inspiring first-time purchase, this ground-floor two-bedroom flat offers a light-filled layout for individuals or couples in pursuit of comfortable living with a convenient address. Situated on the fringe of Frankston's thriving CBD, a position of sheer accessibility provides public transport, retail, cafes and restaurants all within arms' reach. Revelling in a compact footprint, an easy-care living experience spills across an entertaining heart, where an open living and dining zone merges with a functional kitchen complete with combined oven/cooktop, and dishwasher. Servicing both family and guests, the main bathroom offers a private toilet, single vanity and shower with adjoining laundry facilities. Each with built-in robes, two light-letting bedrooms offer space for guests, with additional storage, electric panel heater (lounge only), separate parking space and communal gardens add additional appeal. Requiring minimal upkeep with an active body corporate, this two-bedroom apartment brings convenience to urban living with a 12min walk to Long Island Beach, making it perfect for active downsizers wanting to keep their independence, investors or first-time purchasers.
