Ultra-private modern haven, metres from Morningside dining Perched at the rear of a complex of just 3, this boutique beauty pairs an ultra-private setting with a generous three-bedroom layout, and a perfect position just metres from famed Morningside dining options. Immaculately presented with brand new carpets, freshly painted interiors, and a serene secluded courtyard, it's perfect for buyers that desire a low-maintenance lifestyle without compromising on the luxury of extra space. Impressive throughout, this home introduces a sprawling open plan concept featuring extra-height ceilings, quality tiles, and split system air con. Sure to put a shine on the budding chef's culinary spark, its sleek modern kitchen offers plenty of storage, stone benches, and five gas appliances to prepare all of your culinary delights. Outside, a sweeping timber deck offers the perfect ambience for entertaining from day-to-night, whilst the pebble yard offers an easy-care landscape, with the option to turf for your four-legged friends. Additional highlights include: • Three bedrooms with built-ins, all privately placed on upper floor • Luxe master features ensuite with double basin vanity • Stunning main bathroom featuring shower over bathtub, study nook • Single bay lock up garage, great storage throughout Just a short stroll from a slew of enticing cafes and restaurants including the locally renowned Flour & Chocolate Patisserie, as well as local gyms and Morningside train station, this enviable address offers effortless access to trendy Bulimba and Hawthorne dining, and Morningside Central shopping centre. Within the catchment and walking distance to Morningside State School, it's also close to St Peter and Paul's Primary, St Olliver Plunkett, CHAC and Lourdes Hill. Body Corp $5495 p.a approx
