Immaculate in presentation and quietly nestled in a court, this freestanding 3 bedroom 2 bathroom residence blends instant perfection. Offering light filled living and a wonderful sense of space, with a separate lounge room at the front, 3 bedrooms all with built-in robes, and a walk-through en-suite plus a second and separate toilet. Situated at the rear, a generous and well-equipped kitchen with gas cooking and dishwasher opening to the family meals domain which flows to a superb undercover and fully enclosed alfresco, offering that extra space for when the family gathers and a private, low maintenance garden complete with handy shed. The family-friendly location offers conveniences of easy access to the Monash Freeway, walking distance to Pakenham Market Place and Pakenham Main Street with its array of restaurants, train station, and other public transport options. For leisure and recreation, there are nearby sports facilities, and the convenience of local schools adds to the appeal. Don't miss the chance to make this house your home, where comfort, convenience, and a warm welcome awaits you.
