A sanctuary of sophistication upon Mount Martha's hillside, this stylish coastal home frames uninterrupted panoramic views from The Heads to Melbourne's city skyline and across the bay to Queenscliff, providing a premium lifestyle with stylish interiors and established landscaping destined for entertaining. Appreciating the privacy maximised by the elevation and a secure rear periphery, the home integrates an indoor-outdoor lifestyle across a central lounge and dining area, generous front balcony and landscaped gardens with sun-drenched alfresco and impressive open fireplace. Updated to indulge the home cook, stone benchtops define the kitchen where a Smeg freestanding cooker and Bosch dishwasher sit amongst light-filled proportions with the complement of an island bench with breakfast bar, and study nook. Each enjoying the airy coastal ambience of timber floors and warm neutral tones, three bedrooms enjoy garden aspects, including the master bedroom with custom timber headboard, ensuite and walk-in robe, while sharing in a family bathroom with feature tiles and stand-alone tub. A four car garage with workshop sits below the first floor, while an automated side gate opens to a further parking bay ideal for trailer, boat or caravan. Curated for an easy-care lifestyle with gas ducted heating, evaporative cooling, children's sandpit and cubby house, this impressive family home sits only moments from Mount Martha Village, Mount Martha Golf Club and the sandy beaches of Safety Beach.
