Discover timeless elegance fused with contemporary living at this impressive double-storey residence, located moments from the best of High Street. With its captivating period features and modern upgrades, this home offers a unique blend of character and family comfort. This substantial residence features six generous bedrooms (three with BIRs) and four beautifully appointed bathrooms, including one with a spa bath. The brand-new kitchen, fully equipped with electric appliances, is the focal point of the expansive main living and dining area. With two allocated living areas and the potential for a third, there's ample space for family gatherings and individual relaxation. Step outside to discover the north-facing paved backyard and self-contained studio complete with its own kitchen and bathroom, offering versatility for guests or a potential rental opportunity. Adorned with stunning period details such as original ornate fireplaces, intricate fretwork, bay windows, and lead lighting throughout, the property exudes timeless charm. Enjoy the convenience of heating and cooling throughout, euro laundry, double carport accessible via roller door to ROW, and captivating city views from the upstairs bedroom. Located less than 400 meters from bus and tram stops, as well as Thornbury Train Station, commuting anywhere is extremely convenient. High Street and Plenty Rd's vibrant amenities are virtually at your doorstep, offering an array of options for cafes, restaurants, shopping, and much more.
