If comfort, location, and potential are what you have longed for, then this perfectly situated four bedroom home is yours. Positioned on a quiet cul-de-sac in one of the best streets in North Tamworth, you are only minutes from the CBD and a short stroll away from the local shops, schools, and hospitals. This four bedroom home offers plenty of space inside with the open plan kitchen and dining as well as the separate living space. Included in the laundry is a second toilet that then opens up onto the large undercover outdoor area perfect for when entertaining. Included is a single car garage and a 5x5 lock up shed, complimenting the two huge carport areas. Create your own workshop or park your prized possession safely undercover all year round. Being in such a sort-after location and on a large 793m² block, this house gives you everything you could ever desire. Contact us today to organise an inspection.
