Immaculately maintained and affectionately tended, this cherished family residence radiates warmth and style. Nestled within an exclusive northside community surrounded by premium housing, this home spans two levels and has undergone a recent transformation that seamlessly blends the timeless charm of polished hardwood floors with contemporary design, resulting in a luminous and simply stunning family residence. The heart of this home is a sleek stone kitchen featuring top-of-the-line Smeg appliances and a sun filled walk in pantry. Boasting four bedrooms, upstairs the master suite includes a full ensuite, while the remaining rooms are equipped with built-in robes and 4th bedroom room is complimented by its own ensuite making it the perfect option for the teenagers or guest alike! An additional bonus is the separate study/home office with a cedar-lined ceiling and a dedicated entrance—an ideal space for those seeking a convenient work-from-home setup. Step outside to discover a decked outdoor entertaining area, which boasts built in bar and luxurious spa - making it the perfect place for summer evenings! Further embraced by the tranquility of mature and private gardens. Parking is effortlessly accommodated with an oversized carport and additional parking bay suitable for trailers or a caravan. For the hobbyist, a hand-built workshop with timber floors and workbenches provides the perfect haven for creative endeavours. Convenience is key, with close proximity to schools, sporting facilities, and High Street, making this property a delightful haven that seamlessly combines comfort, functionality, and modern elegance.
