Offers Now or Auction

Discover elegant living in this immaculate brand new seven-bedroom residence nestled in the desirable neighborhood of Blakehurst. Sprawling over two spacious levels with thoughtful design touches throughout, this stunning family home is the epitome of contemporary elegance and style. The lower level showcases an expansive, open plan layout that seamlessly connects the lounge and dining areas over exquisite stone flooring. This central hub of the home transitions onto the stunning, granite-stone kitchen equipped with stainless appliances, double wall oven, a versatile island bench and discreet butler's pantry. Downstairs also includes a functional space featuring dual rooms with direct bathroom access that could be utilised for guest accommodation, a teenage retreat/study area or an office to suit those working from home. Upstairs provides five bedrooms, each with either built-in or walk-in wardrobes, whilst two share a functional Jack and Jill bathroom. Indulge in luxury in the oversized master suite boasting a walk-in wardrobe and opulent ensuite with stone vanity and modern accents. The main bathroom is equally as impressive including dual sinks, floor-to-ceiling tiles and a standalone feature tub and shower. This level also contains an additional rumpus/living area with balcony access, providing ample space for families to relax and unwind. Entertain family and friends in style on the undercover alfresco entertainer's terrace that seamlessly connects from the lounge room through double glass sliding doors, and overlooks the meticulously manicured, level grassed backyard. Additional features of the home include ducted and zoned air conditioning, Bosch security alarm, Micron intercom system, gas hot water, internal laundry, double lock up garage with internal access and option for plenty of off street parking also. Ideally positioned within easy reach of cafes, shops, picturesque waterways, parks and transport and in within walking distance to Bald Face Primary School, embrace the ease of everyday living and urban convenience in this contemporary family home.
