Located in a charming family-friendly pocket, this sturdy double-storey brick home sits on a generous 595 sqm corner block. Surrounded by well-kept trees, gardens, and lawns, it exudes street appeal. The property features driveway parking and a spacious double garage with extensive storage, including a utility room. A cosy front patio next to the entrance is the perfect spot for relaxing and enjoying the local environment. Enter from the quaint front door to discover a foyer that leads you into a sprawling carpeted rumpus room, complete with air conditioning, built-in storage shelves, and a rustic bar adorned with timeless pendant lighting. This space is ideal as a games room or casual entertaining area, with ample room for a pool table. Conveniently, it connects to a shared downstairs bathroom via the garage. Ascend upstairs to find a vast open-plan lounge and dining area, illuminated by classy pendant lights and adorned with ornate wallpaper and striking timber floors. This area is perfect for formal dining or entertaining and seamlessly connects to the kitchen, which houses an intimate family dining area. The kitchen, in its good original condition, awaits your creative revamp. It offers ample cabinetry and generous timber bench space, making it a fully functional culinary hub as it stands. From the upstairs living areas, step out onto the immense tiled wrap-around balcony, offering breathtaking tree-top and street views. With its decorative balustrades and charming features, it's an idyllic setting for weekend gatherings or relaxed alfresco living. At the rear, external stairs lead down to a large, fenced backyard, featuring a vast open-air terrace for further entertaining. This area boasts a quaint built-in barbecue in the corner, adding to its charm. Back inside, the upper-level houses four carpeted bedrooms, three equipped with built-in robes. All bedrooms share access to a neat, original bathroom with a shower, bath, and separate water closet. This property also includes a functional shed, providing additional storage solutions or workspace potential. This Macgregor residence offers a unique opportunity to own a classic home with endless potential in a coveted location.
