Expressions of Interest

Nestled in the heart of one of Tasmania's top ten must-visit destinations, 2 D'entrecasteaux Drive presents a unique blend of secluded tranquility and architectural elegance. This stunning home, situated just a short drive from the Roberts Point ferry, offers panoramic views of the spectacular Apollo Bay, a view that guarantees an ever-changing vista of yacht filled waters and serene fishing spots. Designed by a renowned architect, the home exudes minimalist charm and open-plan living, stretching across its generous floor area. The living space is accentuated by a full wall of glass and concertina doors, seamlessly blending indoor comfort with outdoor entertainment possibilities. The interior design features rich earthy tones, natural timber finishes, and ingenious highlight windows, creating a space that is as aesthetically pleasing as it is functional. The property spreads over three subtly distinct levels, each offering a unique experience. It features a state-of-the-art kitchen with waterfall benches, top-tier appliances, and unique storage solutions, signifying a departure from the ordinary. The flexible floor plan includes a versatile library space, ideal for a range of activities such as a games room, study, studio, or even a grand piano area. The private spaces of the house, including the serene bedrooms, are designed to offer peace and style. The master bedroom comes with an extraordinary ensuite, while the main bathroom is simply breathtaking. These spaces provide a perfect retreat from the bustling world outside. As the new owner of this magnificent property, you will be immersed in the delights of Bruny Island. From cafes, wineries, and restaurants to stunning beaches and vibrant wildlife, the local area is rich in experiences. The property's location is just 25 minutes from Kettering, offering convenient access to Hobart's heart.
