This 17 acre block is a rare find indeed with plenty of positives to consider. It is located in a private and peaceful Palana location and has plenty of potential. There's ample room to move with a sizeable cleared level area which could be an ideal house site (STCA). Construction of a dwelling is an allowable use under the current zoning and power is running along the boundary of Edens Road which is well maintained. Stunning Palana Beach is only minutes away and this property could lend itself to various recreational pursuits or a more permanent endeavour. Palana Beach is pictured last and more often than not, your's will be the only footprints in the sand. Please contact Michelle Hirschfield on Flinders Island to arrange an inspection.
