Explore the charm of country living with this serene plot between Dunolly and Maryborough. Spanning approximately 3000m<sup>2</sup> farming zone, this land offers a blank canvas for your dreams. With local services nearby, the potential is yours to tap into, as nothing is currently connected, and no planning permits have been applied to offer you a fresh start to tailor everything to your needs. *In regard to planning, you need to do your due diligence with the local Central Goldfields council. Positioned on the corner of George Street and Maryborough Dunolly Road, this bush block is flanked by homes on either side, with new constructions emerging. A vendor statement will be available shortly, presenting a clear path to making this space your own. Express your interest today with Team Real Estate Kate and seize the opportunity to craft your idyllic country retreat. JLAB2803
