Gracefully situated on a substantial 745m² parcel of land, this remarkable property is a testament to contemporary family living. Here, you will discover a spacious 4-bedroom residence that seamlessly integrates modernity and comfort, along with an array of practical features. As you enter, the main bedroom immediately stands out as an expansive private sanctuary. It comes complete with an exquisite ensuite, featuring twin shower heads within an oversized shower. Adjacent to the ensuite, you will find a large walk-in robe that ensures your clothing remain neatly organized. The other three bedrooms are equally spacious and thoughtfully designed. Each of them boasts built-in robes. This residence boasts not just one, but two generously sized living areas. The primary living space forms the heart of the home, offering an open and inviting atmosphere for the family. An additional living area adds versatility to the home, making it suitable for a media room, or a play area. With two split system units and solid fuel heating you are sure to enjoy every season in comfort. Stay organized and clutter-free with the walk-in store room flowing off the double car garage as well as an over sized laundry room. Step outside and discover the under-roof outdoor area, designed as an extension of your indoor living space. It provides an ideal setting for entertaining guests, while enjoying your beautifully landscaped backyard. The added bonus of rear yard access gives you the freedom to personalize your outdoor space to suit your lifestyle. With close proximity to Traralgon's finest amenities, schools, cafes and parks. It guarantees that you will experience the very best of this vibrant community. This is your opportunity to make 2 Greythorn Road your own, a home that offers not just shelter but a lifestyle waiting for you to embrace.
