Unleash your inner renovator with this original three-bedroom gem in the heart of Baxter - where easy living is yours for the taking on the cusp of every convenience. Ready for a bit of love and TLC, this single-level home promises endless potential in a prime location, moments from Frankston's lively CBD, Peninsula Link, Mount Eliza's elite schools, and Somerville's bustling community – the future is bright here. With a practical layout that serves your current needs and plenty of room for personal touches, this home is your canvas. Three bedrooms and a bathroom with a separate toilet make for a functional family setup, all enhanced by timeless hardwood timber floors throughout. The spacious backyard invites you to dream big, whether it's an alfresco oasis or a play area for the kids; plus, with two sheds, you'll have ample storage or even a workshop. Grab the tools, start the inspo board, and get cracking on your next big project. Sitting on a 547sqm (approx) block, you're a stroll away from Baxter village and the train station, with easy access to Peninsula Link for a hassle-free commute. Enjoy Frankston's lively CBD with its bars, restaurants, beautiful foreshore, shopping, excellent schools and parks within reach, and city-bound transport at your doorstep; everything you need is right here to make this home the starting point for your next chapter.
