

2 Hideaway Cove, Halls Head, WA 6210

Sold House

Thursday, 9 November 2023

2 Hideaway Cove, Halls Head, WA 6210

Bedrooms: 4

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 2

Type: House

Bev Chadwick
0450203857

$680,000

Bev Chadwick proudly presents a remarkable opportunity to own a spacious family haven in the coveted enclave of Halls Head. If your dream is to live by the beach, look no further! Nestled on an expansive 708sqm corner block with unparalleled side access for your boat, within walking distance of the beach, and right across from a picturesque park, this property defines the ultimate in beachside family living. Imagine Your Family's Daily Delight: Picture your children playing in the shaded park after school, cycling along the scenic beachfront pathways each morning, and the convenience of parking your boat, ready for weekend fishing trips or a quick ocean dip, thanks to direct beach access at the end of your cul-de-sac. Could you ask for more from a beachside residence? An Impressive Entrance: The home's grandeur begins at the entrance – with outstanding street appeal, double timber gates for added security, ample parking, and a double lock-up garage. Additional features include security screens on the front door, a robust 5kw solar panel system, and reverse cycle air conditioning for year-round comfort. Spacious and inviting: Stepping inside, to your right, you'll discover a large formal lounge and adjoining dining room, currently repurposed as a study/work area, each equipped with ceiling fans, creating a sense of openness and space. A Master Suite Retreat: The master bedroom, positioned at the front of the property, boasts a spacious walk-in robe with a window welcoming natural light. The ensuite is equally generous with double basins, a spacious shower, and a separate WC. A Heartwarming Hub: Continuing through the hallway, you'll arrive at the heart of the home – a capacious living area with a family room, games room, and a well-appointed kitchen, all overlooking a beautiful outdoor living space. The kitchen boasts ample cupboard space, a corner pantry, designated fridge and dishwasher recesses, an electric oven, and a gas stove top. High ceilings add an extra touch of grandeur. The Wow Zone Outdoors: The outdoor space is where the magic happens! A large gabled patio along the east side ensures year-round entertaining, while established plants create a tropical oasis. The sunken fire pit, shaded by sails, offers a perfect spot to gather on cool spring nights. The backyard includes a grassy area, a substantial shed, and room to park your caravan or boat, thanks to the convenient side access. Generously Sized Rooms: All rooms in this home are generously sized, including the minor bedrooms, all equipped with ceiling fans and two featuring built-in robes. A bonus tiled activity room awaits in this wing of the home. The second bathroom boasts a bath, shower, and vanity, with a separate WC conveniently located in the modern laundry. An expansive linen cupboard caters to all your storage needs. Prime Beachside Living: This sought-after corner of Halls Head offers the ultimate in beachside living, just a short drive from excellent schools, shops, and amenities, and a leisurely stroll from the pristine waters and a delightful park nearby. Don't miss your chance – this generously sized, perfectly located property won't last long in today's market. Call Bev Chadwick today at 0450203857 to schedule your viewing. Live the beachside dream!

**#wesellthebesthomes#teamworkmakesthedreamworkDisclaimer: This information is provided for general information purposes only and is based on information provided by the Seller and may be subject to change. No warranty or representation is made as to its accuracy and interested parties should place no reliance on it and should make their own independent enquiries.