

2 Hilda Street, Cessnock, NSW 2325

Sold House

Thursday, 12 October 2023

2 Hilda Street, Cessnock, NSW 2325

Bedrooms: 3

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 2

Area: 609 m2

Type: House

Heath Baird
0249917977

Ben Rowlands
0249917977

$690,000

- This classic circa 1940's Californian Bungalow style property has been restored to the highest order- Proudly sitting on a corner site with its bright blue colour scheme and contrasting white picket fence, it presents a very inviting street appeal- Upon entering the home you are met by charming features of yesteryear such as ornamental fretwork, dado rails, square coloured feature window and beautiful plastered ceiling to the lounge- The three bedrooms are all generously proportioned and all have ceiling fans- Stunning and brand new kitchen that is contemporary but still fits in with the style and feel of the home. Custom island bench with plenty of storage space and quality appliances- There are multiple living room options with the formal area to the front with its classic features, the dining area could double as a second living room with beautiful French Door access to the side yard and the kitchen has an informal dining space- The main bathroom is compact and modern with a touch of the classics and there is a second bathroom off the laundry that services the outdoors- Imagine the warmer months ahead in your own summer oasis with the inground swimming pool and two undercover areas to watch the kids play from- The lawns and gardens are easy to maintain and contain beautiful fruit trees- To finish the package off the double garage is a fantastic work space that has a double carport off the front with a full concrete driveway- All contained within a fully fenced approx 609m2 block