This Balnarring beach house is like a dreamy coastal retreat with its endearing green gardens and relaxed atmosphere. Its prime location near amenities like the primary school, shopping centre, and local attractions adds to its appeal for both permanent residents and holidaymakers. The interior oozes coastal-boho charm, with features like the sunken lounge, wood fire heater and timber wall paneling creating a cozy ambiance. The kitchen complete with a tiled breakfast bar and walk-around pantry, offers functionality with a touch of charm. Practical elements like the second bathroom, garden sheds, and ample parking complete the picture of this adorable property, situated on a spacious level allotment just a short stroll from Balnarring town center. It's a quintessential coastal haven offering both tranquility and convenience—a place where you can truly unwind and embrace the coastal lifestyle. Features: • Sunken lounge with wood fire heater & split system • Multiple sets of sliding glass doors for internal/external access • Both bedrooms with built in robes • 3 garden sheds
