Nestled within a peaceful cul-de-sac with a delightful leafy streetscape and mountain views sits an impressive family home filled with modern comfort and sophisticated style. The sumptuous living room bathes in abundant sunshine through extensive double glazing, enjoying natural light and warmth to complement its open and airy ambiance. The space spills out to a sun-drenched entertaining deck. At the heart of the home, sunshine reaches the dining area with charcoal grey floor tiles. Incorporated within, the elegant kitchen comes fully equipped with quality appliances, ample storage within glossy cabinetry, and spacious benchtops. Comfortable accommodation comprises of three generous, bright bedrooms. Two are inclusive of built-in wardrobes, and the master, occupying a private position within the opposing wing, features a walk-in closet, and an en-suite. The main bathroom servicing the home contains a shower, bath, and a vanity, with a separate powder room adjacent. The large laundry enjoys plenty of storage space, and room for everyday essentials. The sunny deck extends from both the main living area, and dining and kitchen, allowing for easy entertaining and dining in an outdoor setting. The grounds are low maintenance and have been fastidiously maintained to offer a beautiful garden oasis, with plenty of space for children and pets to play safely within the fully fenced allotment. Year-round comfort is assured through three reverse-cycle air systems, and solar panels to contribute to the home's energy efficiency. Plenty of off-street parking is provided within the gated driveway, and there's a garden shed for the ease of outdoor maintenance and additional storage. Centrally located, within minutes of the major shopping hub of Kingston with supermarkets, cafes, shops, and essential services, and just 15-minutes from Hobart's CBD, this remarkable home offers a superior level of comfort and convenience in a highly sought-after family neighbourhood.
