Tucked away in a tree lined street, this single level full brick home has been newly refreshed and is ready to enjoy, while still offering plenty of scope for a new family to make it their own. The practical floorplan is separated into a private accommodation area and a generous living zone, which offers flexibility for formal and casual settings. The main outdoor area is also ideally positioned to capture north east sun. Enjoying a great sense of privacy, this spacious family home is still only a few minutes' walk from the heart of Bexley Village, where a collection of popular cafés, village shops and other everyday conveniences can be found. It's a stroll to public and private schools, bus stops, the local IGA and Bexley Park, while a central address ensures easy access to a wider range of amenities in Hurstville, Kogarah and Rockdale. • Freshly painted interiors with high ceilings, new carpet in bedrooms • Lounge/dining room with wide bay window, expansive island kitchen • Casual family space has raked ceiling and exposed brick feature walls • Low maintenance courtyard with covered setting for meals/gatherings • Three large bedrooms, original full bathroom offers scope to add value • Main bedroom features study/dressing room, walk-in robe and ensuite • Ample storage, air conditioning, ceiling fans and wood combustion fire • Extra-wide frontage with classic picket fence, double garage/workshop • Minutes from the aquatic centre, Bardwell Valley Parklands and the bay
