Situated on the corner of a quiet street in Inglewood sits this large picturesque home. Flourishing gardens and green lawns greet you at the face of the property, with a wrap around porch garnished by florals. Internally you will find 2 large living spaces, one lounge room and a family room showcasing a rustic fireplace. Split system air conditioning. Good sized kitchen includes dishwasher and tiled dining area. Ample space for family or hosting with four bedrooms, the main bedroom containing an ensuite. Tinted windows providing privacy and keep out the harsh summer sun. The home also has a spacious alfresco area facing the backyard perfect for relaxing, entertaining and enjoying the afternoon sun. Street facing double lock up garage. At the rear of the property shipping container converted shed for extra storage space. Behind this area a large plot shaded by gumtrees, with a sturdy fence line & covered shelter for the animals. Located just out of the way in a private suburban area this beautifully kept home and land is the perfect place for a family to settle down and place roots - And YES! The sheep and chickens come with the home too, along with a ride-on lawn mower and established fruit trees you're fully set up to live comfortably & sustainably.
