This property would truly make a great first home or downsizer for the retiree. This comfortable three bedroom home sits on a very flat block and has a good sized yard, a handy shed and carport and back yard access to park a boat or caravan. The kitchen is clean and functional and two of the bedrooms have built in wardrobes. Tightly held for around 25 years the home sits in a great location not far from schools or a short trip into the CBD. The home is kept cosy and warm with a wood heater and heat transfer system. It has a very secure well fenced yard to keep your pets and children safe and secure.*The information contained herein has been supplied to us by sources which are considered reliable and we have no reason to doubt its accuracy.
