Primed for easy living and perfected by its peaceful cul-de-sac setting, this single level home provides practicality for families with generous living and dining zones backdropped by a carefree yard for outdoor entertaining. Setting the tone as you step inside, polished floorboards draw you into the spacious lounge room before continuing through to the dining zone where the family can reconvene over an evening meal. Bordering this space, you find a fabulous kitchen complete with a lengthy breakfast bench, Everdure gas stove, Euromaid oven plus the convenience of a dishwasher, while the entertaining deck lures you out into the carefree yard. When the end of the day arrives, you can retreat to the three robed bedrooms, with the master suite benefitting from his/her built-in-robos and direct ensuite effect access to the family bathroom with toilet, further complemented by a powder room and laundry. Sealing the deal, the home comes complete with ducted heating, split system air conditioning, cloak closet, decorative cornices throughout the living and dining zone plus a double garage with rear roller door and internal access. Further benefitting from a location that offers complete convenience with walking access to Burwood Heights Primary, Forest Hill College, Emmaus College, Forest Hill Chase Shopping Centre, buses, trams, Mahoneys Reserve and Aqualink.
