A terrific opportunity for young people wishing to escape the rental treadmill. No more shifting just move in and enjoy this three-bedroom colonial style, freshly painted brick veneer home. High ceilings with ornate features are prominent in the open plan living through the kitchen-meals-living area, with all year-round comfort provided with split system cooling and heating. The back yard is perfect for pets and young children being fully fenced. Several sheds are provided with one having a roller door for easy access. With a current rental appraisal of $380 per week this is an attractive property for investors.
