Achieving an unbeatable sense of harmony with its private cul-de-sac position amongst the treetops, this peaceful oasis has been crafted to harness natural light while catching gentle breezes throughout. A natural entertainer, open plan living flows effortlessly out to a large-scale alfresco balcony, an area that promises to be the starting point of many memorable family meals and celebrations, and it comes complete with a panoramic lake vista. Three bedrooms share a spacious main bathroom with spa bath and dual vanities – the master benefits from direct ensuite-style access. The last bedroom rests downstairs alongside a shower bathroom, the laundry, and another outdoor alfresco area, and any teen will be quick to claim this space. A modern kitchen, air-conditioning and double garage provide all the creature comforts we crave.
