This substantial low set executive style home screams quality and durability with it's double brick construction providing comfort from the elements all year round. This ideal family home offers endless living zones and outdoor lifestyle options for all the family. The home boasts four bedrooms, the main comes with an eye catching, jaw dropping en-suite with spa bath and slate tiling, walk in robe plus air conditioning and also features raked ceilings with exposed beams. The multiple living zones consist of the formal lounge and meals area, complete with a cosy combustion fire to warm you through the winter months, along with an additional family room. A handy addition, the side extension, with high raked ceilings and exposed timber beams, is currently utilised as the formal dining and study, was constructed by the original owner for home business and enjoys a separate external access. All the living and traffic zones are tiled making for low maintenance while the bedrooms are carpeted. The central galley style kitchen comes with granite benchtops, timber cabinetry and electric appliances including a dishwasher whilst the main bathroom is of a three way design with a heritage theme. From multiple access points step outside and experience the north coast lifestyle with the spacious, covered entertainment area, the perfect place to entertain family and friends or cool off in the sparkling in ground pool. The home is completed with a secure double garage, a garden shed to store all your equipment, the tiled roof has been fully restored and the property is positioned adjacent a public park, a great place for the kids to run and play. Located in a quiet street, this super convenient home is within walking distance to the bowls club, playing fields, and a little further to the shopping precinct whilst only a 15 minute drive to the sandy beaches of Ballina.
