Enviably situated in a coveted pocket between tranquil Barkley Gardens and cosmopolitan Church Street, this classic c1890's balconied Victorian residence with 3 street frontages has recently undergone a breathtaking renovation to become a state-of-the-art showcase of elite designer style. From the French oak and terrazzo flooring to the solid American oak and walnut joinery to the lavish natural stone and bespoke lighting, every element highlights the attention to detail and designer flair. The central hallway flows through to a generous sitting and dining room dappled with light through Italian linen curtains creating a refined area for formal entertaining. Expansive in scale and bathed in western light, the sensational open plan living and dining room features an open fire, built in banquette seating and a spectacular gourmet kitchen appointed with Taj Mahal Quartzite benches and splash backs, Gaggenau appliances, and a butler's pantry. Fully opening double glazed sliders connect the living space seamlessly with a broad wrap around decked west-facing garden with a large remote sun-awning. Two spacious downstairs bedrooms with built in robes and a stunning bathroom with freestanding bath are matched upstairs by the beautiful main bedroom with customized robes, luxurious en suite and north-facing balcony and a fabulous retreat/home office with walk in closet. In a sought-after lifestyle hub only metres to a myriad of restaurants and cafes, East Richmond station, trams, the MCG, schools and freeway access, it is comprehensively appointed with hydronic/ducted/underfloor heating, RC/air-conditioning, remote blinds, double glazing, Euro-laundry, irrigation and ample storage.
