Cultivating a tranquil sensory experience, Parc's distinct character embodies the beauty and essence of its natural surrounds. An abundance of landscaping intertwines with the architectural form to foster sophistication and serenity whilst establishing a strong connection to place. Presenting exceptional attention to detail, robust and timeless materials create an undeniable sense of grandeur that is elegantly balanced with lush greenery. Composed of rich textures, organic materials and warm tones, the naturally inspired interiors enrich the act of living. Uncompromising in its vision, the interiors are as much about flexibility as they are liveability. Inspired by the desire to create a sanctuary of calm and ease within the home, the highly-considered interiors transform each space into an idyllic canvas. Reflecting an outstanding level of craftsmanship, enduring elements of natural stone, travertine and oak timber laminate create a refined aesthetic.
