OFFERS OVER $795,000

Discover the perfect blend of convenience and value with this entry-level home located on the desirable eastern side of Bloomfield Street. All the work has been done for you, with a modernised kitchen including stone benchtops and a brand new bathroom! This property offers a fantastic opportunity for first-time buyers or savvy investors looking to secure a low-maintenance and easy living home without the burden of high body corporate fees typical of units. Conveniently located on a corner block offering side access possibilities, fully fenced ideal for children and pets providing ample space whilst being just a short walk away from local parklands. This charming home offers a practical layout and modern conveniences, making it an excellent choice for families, the corner block adds versatility and the potential for side access enhances the property's appeal whilst also being in the same price range as what units are selling for.. though this one being much more spacious. Don't miss out on this fantastic opportunity!
