Offering immense street appeal from its highly desirable location, this beautifully presented full brick character home is everything the growing family needs. Step beyond the picket fence and beautifully tuck-pointed facade to find a home with 3 spacious bedrooms, main with a period ensuite and built in wardrobe, a large modern kitchen with gas cooking, an updated main bathroom, separate formal dining room with direct access out to a private central courtyard featuring an automated retractable cover. Another great feature is the air-conditioned sunken lounge room at the rear offering the perfect separation of private space from the rest of the home. This unique space overlooks the leafy garden- the perfect place to entertain or simply to watch the kids run free. The home is filled with many period features including leadlight timber windows and joinery, high ornate ceilings and polished timber floors throughout. Parking is also provided for several cars via a wide side driveway to a carport. Perfectly positioned in a quiet, sought-after street amongst many other quality homes, only around the corner from the expansive Ford Park and within easy reach of elite Strathfield schools and major shopping. DISCLAIMER: This advertisement contains information provided by third parties.
