The evolution of stunning 'Edinglassie' is now complete, creating a spectacular sanctuary for family life in Mosman's coveted Clifton Gardens. Commanding city and harbour views from its elevated 960sqm landholding, this majestic c1907 Queen Anne Federation home masterfully and sympathetically fuses together old-world grandeur with modern day luxury. Completely custom and high-end, the home has been thoughtfully and tastefully reborn with generous living spaces, extra-large bedrooms crowned with a decadent whole floor master suite. The floorplan brilliantly balances indoor and outdoor living with deep wraparound verandahs, a sundrenched deck and terrace by the pool. It boasts a rare four car garage in an aspirational setting that is steps to Clifton Gardens, National Parks, harbour tracks and Balmoral beach. Deep tessellated tile wraparound verandahs framed by superb gardens. High ceilings with ornate detailing and luxurious statement lighting. Elegant formal lounge with fireplace and built-in cabinetry with a library wall. Spacious family living area with views over the harbour to the Eastern suburbs. Lavish stone gas kitchen with V-Zug cooktop, two ovens, and dishwasher. Integrated Miele fridge/freezer and concealed butler's pantry. Formal dining room with large picture windows framing impressive views. Elevated home office with a balcony and inspirational views. Palatial master suite with private retreat, views, built-in dressing table and luxurious ensuite. Mudroom, powder room, ducted air-conditioning, bathrooms with underfloor heating.
