Freshly renovated and nestled on a corner block in a lovely quiet street, this beautifully presented three-bedroom, two-bathroom home is positioned to enjoy the spoils of an idyllic lifestyle, especially suited to a young family looking for parks, playgrounds and a selection of nearby, quality schools. A hop, skip and a jump from your front door and you will find yourself in the leafy green surrounds of Eton Park, and with only four homes on your street, and neighbours to one side only, a tranquil life is guaranteed. Fully repainted, with new flooring, doors and handles, shower screens, fixtures, blinds and a new kitchen benchtop, this home has been lovingly redecorated to create a fresh, welcoming space filled with plenty of natural light with little to no maintenance. Comfort is the name of the game here and all bedrooms feature either built-in or sliding robes, with the main boasting its own ensuite and plush carpet. The open-plan kitchen/dining/living area is a contemporary and generous-sized space with a lovely outlook onto the courtyard – a perfect communal space for the family to come together with ample benchtops for a breakfast bar and sliding doors creating a lovely flow to the exterior. This is a wonderful area to relax and entertain in -complete the picture with an outdoor table and chairs, BBQ and a few colourful pots and plants, and you have a lovely alfresco space to enjoy from inside and out. With a home overlooking mature trees and the wide-open space of Eton Park, kids and family dog couldn't be more spoiled in this location! Blessed with green space, fresh air, a quiet street, and wide open spaces, a young family would absolutely thrive here. Combine this with proximity to quality schools, daycare, public transport, plenty of other parks and reserves and Wanneroo Central, a mere five-minute drive away, and a convenient lifestyle is assured. This is a gorgeous home that is well suited to young families, down-sizers, first-home buyers or investors.
