“Highbury” Beautifully reflecting the elegance of Victorian architecture, this classic double fronted residence’s single level dimensions are idyllically nestled within a glorious leafy landscaped garden oasis only moments to High Street’s shops and restaurants, Armadale station, Union Park, trams and excellent schools. Behind the enchanting block-fronted exterior profile, a wide arched hallway featuring Spotted Gum floors flow through to a double bedroom with robes and a gas fire, a second robed bedroom, a third bedroom with an exquisite stained-glass window and a stylish bathroom. The generous open plan living and dining room with a gas fireplace and gourmet kitchen appointed with Corian benches and 90cm Ilve oven opens through French doors to the captivating private garden, surrounded entirely by greenery. Providing modern amenity with period charm, it includes an alarm, RC/air-conditioning, ceiling fans, large laundry, garden shed and storage.
