Step into a world where classic charm meets modern convenience in this renovated three-bedroom home, ideally situated in the heart of central Mayfield. The kitchen sits at the heart of the home featuring 3m ceilings, a contemporary design with plenty of storage space, a 900mm oven and high end dishwasher. It opens out onto the dining space, making it a delightful space for both cooking and gathering. This property exudes character with original touches like antique glass windows and high ceilings, preserving the essence of a bygone era. Natural light floods the interior, creating a warm and welcoming atmosphere throughout. For those who love outdoor living, a spacious covered dining area awaits, perfect for hosting summer barbecues or simply enjoying the fresh air. Inside, the generous main living area offers versatility, allowing you to craft your own personal space, whether it's a comfortable lounge or a home office to cater to remote work needs. Set on a low-maintenance corner block, this property offers ample space for children and pets to play, alongside practical features like off-street parking and a handy storage shed. There's even room for a vegetable garden for those with green thumbs. Convenience is the name of the game here, with nearby shops and transportation options just a short, flat walk away. Plus, you're only a 10-minute drive from the bustling heart of Newcastle CBD. This home is a perfect fusion of classic appeal and contemporary living. Don't miss your chance to make it yours.
