Positioned perfectly, 2 Whitby Way presents a unique opportunity to either relish in the traditional and time worn feel the property encompasses or indulge your imagination and turn this house into your dream home. Property features include, three reasonably sized bedrooms with built in robes, one main toilet and bathroom, a bright living area with a large window which characterizes the area and given the size of the property a large outdoor area with potential to be elevated to new heights. Established on a 536sqm (approx.) block, this property presents you with multiple possibilities and experiences to take renovations to a whole other level. Other features include, hardwood timber floors, a split system, and a single car garage with extra off-street parking available. The home's location is ideal being centrally located near Seaford and Carrum beach, Kananook Creek, Seaford RSL, Seaford & Carrum train station, sporting facilities such as North Seaford Tennis club and Seaford United Soccer club.
