Welcome to 2 Whitetop Drive, Point Cook, a charming family home situated in a tranquil neighbourhood. This exceptional property offers the perfect blend of contemporary living and convenience. Nestled on a corner block overlooking a park, this spacious 4 bedroom property presents an ideal opportunity for those seeking a low-maintenance lifestyle. Upstairs, you'll find a large living room or rumpus room with a balcony showcasing park views. Three bedrooms with built-in robes, a centralized bathroom, and a walk-in storage cupboard complete the upper level. The master bedroom on the ground floor features an ensuite bathroom and walk-in robe. Additional storage space is available under the stairs. The ground floor boasts two generous living areas and a well-appointed entertainer's kitchen with stone benchtops, 900mm appliances, and a dishwasher. Featuring a combination of tiles and lavish floorboards throughout, including the bedrooms, this property exudes elegance. The low maintenance yards are designed with artificial grass, no need for the constant upkeep. The property is equipped with split system air conditioners on both levels. High ceilings enhance the sense of spaciousness, while the Solar Panels contribute to energy efficiency. A private rear courtyard offers a tranquil outdoor retreat, and a rear double garage provides secure parking with access through the concreted laneway. Location-wise, this house is situated in the requested Featherbrook school zone, ensuring access to excellent education options for families. Don't miss the opportunity to make this stylish and conveniently located house your own. Contact Taney and Akash today!
