Set in terrific location with walking distance to the main town centre of Camperdown sits a charming newly weather-boarded home waiting for you to put your stamp on. The home features 3 good sized bedrooms with two bedrooms including robes. The main living area is spacious and equipped with a wood heater, open plan kitchen and dining features gas cooking. Central bathroom includes single vanity and separate shower over bath. The Laundry is located at the back of the home and also includes its own shower. Outside features established gardens with vegetable garden, wood shed and undercover bbq area all set on 1019m2 block. This property presents a wonderful opportunity for either a first home buyer, young families or savvy investors. Inspection by appointment and will not disappoint.
