First-home buyers and investors will adore 2 Wisteria Place's spacious and functional house and its conveniently central location. There's three large-size bedrooms, all with built-in wardrobes, while the master is also paired with an eye-catching ensuite which, like the main bathroom, has been recently refurbished and modernised. The kitchen is stocked with updated appliances, and opens out onto one of two living areas, as well as a huge and covered alfresco entertaining area. The block is tidy and extremely manageable, with all landscaping accounted for with established trees and gardens in place. There's a double-bay garage and side access to the backyard if needed. Schools and childcare centres are close by, and both the CBD and North Orange Shopping Centre are a few minutes' drive away.
