$215,000

This block of units was built in a really good location and is surrounded by lawns and parklands. Each unit has a secure car parking space. This unit is on the upper level and has its own private balcony, with lovely garden views. On entry of the unit there is a kitchen area with an electric stove and overlooks the meals and living area that is carpeted and opens out to the balcony. The main bedroom has three large mirrored sliding doors for the built in robes and is a really good size with carpeted floors. The second bedroom is also a good size with carpeted floors. The bathroom has a free standing shower and vanity area plus a WC. The complex has got a shared laundry room for everyone to use and there is plenty of clothes lines. This property has a really good tenant on a lease till 09/01/2024 and is paying $310.00 per week and she would like to stay on with a longer lease. The location of this complex is really good and surrounded by the parklands makes for a quiet location but you are also so close to the impressive Rockingham city Shopping Centre, plus a wide range of shops and restaurants.
