An instantly impressive older-style apartment, comprehensively renovated with a timeless sense of elegance, this pristine two bedroom residence is certain to exceed expectations with terrific second floor / top floor views that extend all the way to the city skyline. Fully secure and absolutely brimming with natural light, the apartment is brilliantly located next to Lumley Gardens, a short walk to High Street and merely moments from Chapel Street and the charms of Hawksburn Village. A contemporary kitchen with stainless steel appliances is perfectly pristine, with stone benches that have been extended to create a terrific breakfast bar, whilst the lounge / dining flows out to a sun-drenched north facing balcony where the big city views are captivating. Meanwhile, the bathroom / laundry reveals a bathtub, shower and a stone-topped vanity, while a separate powder room also features stone benches, plus there are glossy polished hardwood floors, built-in robes in the bedrooms – one of which also offers wonderful park views – as well as secure intercom entry, a cherished parking space, split system heating and air conditioning. Walk easily to train and tram transport, countless local cafes, bars and restaurants along High Street and Hawksburn Village, while all the action of Chapel Street is close enough to feel local.
