Welcome to a piece of history, bordering the Forth River and nestled in the heart of picturesque Leith. Originally built in 1867, this captivating character home, once the esteemed Leith Inn, stands as a testament to timeless charm and meticulous craftsmanship. Embrace the allure of yesteryear as you wander through the halls adorned with high pressed tin ceilings and polished timber floors, echoing stories of a bygone era. Set on an expansive block measuring over two acres and enveloped by lush greenery, immerse yourself in a world of natural beauty and tranquillity. With classic charm and contemporary convenience, discover a gourmet kitchen, equipped with quality appliances, offering the perfect blend of functionality and style. Unwind in the spacious lounge enhanced with a cosy fireplace or indulge in the comfort of the formal dining room, perfect for intimate gatherings and memorable moments. This home exudes elegance at every turn and offers a seamless fusion of heritage appeal and modern luxury. The master suite offers an ensuite and dual walk-in robes, ensuring your bedroom is a retreat from the rigours of everyday life. The wrap around veranda is ideal for year round entertainment and thoughtfully landscaped gardens offer a superb outlook. Outdoors there is a double carport and a versatile 18 x 5m workshop with power and the solar panel system provides an energy efficient approach. This picturesque residence offers a serene escape from the hustle and bustle while still being conveniently located between Devonport and Ulverstone. Enjoy easy access to amenities, pristine beaches, and everything that a coastal lifestyle offers. Experience the epitome of refined living. Whether you're seeking a peaceful retreat or a captivating piece of history, this remarkable home promises an unparalleled lifestyle experience.
