Originally constructed in 1965 and tastefully updated throughout, this home is situated in a central section of Modbury. Underpinning your investment is an advantageous corner allotment of approximately 750 sqm, with no registered easement or encumbrances this allotment boasts dual street frontages. This property stands ready for its astute new owner, along with all their ideas (subject to the necessary consents). Key features include: * Dual street frontages and driveways on Garra Avenue and Barbara Street * Corner allotment in a prime location * Frontage approximately 30.89 meters on Barbara Street * Depth approximately 33.35 meters on Garra Avenue * Three generous bedrooms, all with built-in robes * Ceiling fans in all bedrooms, main living area, and dining room * Spacious kitchen with ample bench space and gas cooktop * Split system in the master bedroom and main living area * Sufficient off-street parking with drive-through access * Low maintenance gardens * Local shops within walking distance * Close Proximity to Westfield Tea Tree Plaza, Modbury Hospital & The O-bahn * Tenanted to July 2024 for $600 per week No matter your situation, this property is sure to impress with its potential. It offers the opportunity to secure a high-quality home with the comfort of a large allotment to underpin your investment. For savvy investors, the opportunities are abundant, given the scarcity of large corner allotments and the high demand for quality homes, providing a chance to bring your vision to life in this popular location (STCC). A location where everything you need is only moments away. Enjoy family time at one of the nearby reserves. Also within a short distance are all major retailers and eateries at Westfield Tea Tree Plaza, Modbury Hospital, Civic Park, Clovercrest Village, local cafes, and several public and private schools, all of this and with ample public transport options available, commuting to the Adelaide CBD is done with ease!
