The setting couldn't be finer – positioned right between the beach and the bay, with views across Bouddi National Park to the ocean, this is an extraordinary holiday home by every measure. It combines the dress-circle location with an intuitive and thoughtful layout for the family, delivering multiple light-filled living spaces across three levels; interiors are well matched by a captivating series of alfresco and sheltered entertaining zones, providing exceptional privacy for all, both indoors and out. The home has been brilliantly designed for extended family and last minute invites from the city. Get ready for the influx of loved ones, this is the perfect year-round getaway - as delightful in winter as summer, it's just a five minute stroll from the beach. • Exceptionally well-designed home: casual luxury plus stunning views • Short level stroll to Killcare Beach and the centre of Hardys Bay • Free-flowing interiors with multiple living and entertaining zones • Seamless indoor/outdoor lifestyle; wide decks and sunlit terraces • Well-zoned for large or extended families plus weekend guests • Smartly finished kitchen with loads of space to team up on meal prep • Michael Cooke designed gardens; level child-friendly lawns in back • Top floor master suite opens to private deck and ocean views • Bedrooms on each floor, ducted air, Cheminees Philippe fireplace • Hardwood floors, workshop, beach shower
