Sold off-market. On a serene and winding avenue zoned for much-loved Ringwood Heights Primary School, first home buyers and young families will be attracted to the vogue interiors and outstanding lifestyle offered by this fully renovated home. Celebrating the sun-focused benefits of a high-set position complemented by soaring views of BJ Hubbard Reserve's treetops, the marvellous alfresco deck is certain to host fun-filled summertime parties. Flowing effortlessly inside to the lounge and dining room, crowned with a cathedral ceiling for an open and airy feel, the crackling gas log fire is perfect for the cooler months while the sleek stone kitchen with premium appliances will inspire your inner chef. The three robed bedrooms are serviced by a sophisticated bathroom featuring floor-to-ceiling tiling, a stunning timber vanity and a deep soaker tub. Completing this compelling picture, appreciate the polished floorboards, ducted heating, a split system air-conditioner, a double carport, ample off-street parking and land size of 772sqm approx. With buses just metres away that travel between Mitcham train station, Eastland and Ringwood train station, live near Ringwood North Village, Norwood Secondary College, Whitefriars, Yarra Valley Grammar and Luther College.
