This freehold three bedroom two storey town home has been thoughtfully designed to offer an open plan living that is spanning over two luxurious levels. This unique residence is ideal for a vast range of buyers with endless appeal for anybody seeking a relaxed lifestyle and a home that has no body corporate fees. A timeless style from the impressive façade right throughout the open-plan interior with crisp paintwork that is underpinned by warming tones within large open-plan living and dining, with superb natural light and cross ventilation emanating throughout. Boasting a downstairs master bedroom is a rare thing to find in today's market ensuring as we grow into the home, as stairs do not need to be an issue. Framed by a surplus of stone, the kitchen compliments the interior in style with abundant streamlined joinery, stainless appliances, and a brilliant flowing footprint. A large centre island bench enhances functionality with a dishwasher and double sink. Delivering privacy and space, upstairs is a dedicated to a peaceful retreat with two additional bedrooms and a spacious second lounge room as well as a second bathroom. The downstairs master also includes a walk-in robe and luxurious en-suite and access to the rear courtyard with views of the low maintenance garden. The Alfresco area also connects to the main living spaces. Additional features include split air-conditioning units, separate laundry, under stair storage, and double remote garage with internal access as well as a grassed courtyard at the front of the home ideal for a small dog. Just moments from superior amenities within the popular peninsula location, you are never far away from shops, schooling, and transport whilst the endless waterfront precincts will be your new local favourites!
