

20 Centaurus Street, Rockingham, WA 6168

Harcourts

Sold House

Thursday, 12 October 2023

20 Centaurus Street, Rockingham, WA 6168

Bedrooms: 4

Bathrooms: 1

Area: 641 m²

Type: House

David Dennett
0895284244

Contact agent

A timeless 1969 home situated in the heart of Rockingham. Less than 3 kilometres away from Rockingham Beach Foreshore, the bustling Rockingham Café Strip, and a variety of dining and entertainment choices. Conveniently located within walking distance of both public and private schools, including the nearby high school. Additionally, it's within easy walking distance of a prominent shopping centre and provides access to public transportation, including the Rockingham Rail, which offers a roughly 40-minute commute to Perth's CBD. This well-preserved family dwelling boasts a spacious lounge area complete with split reverse cycle air conditioning, window roller shutters, and the convenience of a gas point for staying cozy during the cooler months. The living spaces are filled with natural light, and the home offers four bedrooms. The fourth bedroom can alternatively serve as a substantial home office, study, or activity area. Sitting on a substantial 641m² level lot, the property is serviced by a bore and reticulation system, offering room for improvement or extension of the home. Additionally, there is ample parking and storage space for a boat or caravan with a 5m side access.